

WILSON PREVENTED RATIFICATION OF TREATY OF PEACE

Elihu Root Said But For Him Peace With Germany Would Have Been Ratified—Election of Harding Will Promote Peace of World—Cox for League Unchanged

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Elihu Root in his address on the league of nations during the campaign tonight declared that the treaty of peace with Germany would have been ratified and America would have been a member of the league if President Wilson "had been willing."

Mr. Wilson, however, was not willing. He insisted upon the treaty unchanged, Mr. Root said.

"I do not question Mr. Wilson's beliefs," he said, "that the disposition of the treaty for which he was contending on May 31, 1919, were just and fair; but, without disrespect, I do question Mr. Wilson's infallibility, I do question the complete control of abstract justice in the processes by which the four men who dictated those treaties, which undertook to make over Eastern Europe, reached their conclusions."

"I have an impression that there was the accommodation of conflicting interests; the giving of something here to get something there; the yielding of some things to avoid losing others, the shading of justice by expediency which has characterized such conferences. I have a strong impression that some of their conclusions were mistakes."

"And I think it most objectionable that the American people shall enter into a solemn and positive agreement to guarantee and maintain by force or arms the dispositions of territory and sovereignty which these four men made in 1919."

"That is a part of what article X undertakes to do. It is an alliance to enforce perpetually through the operations of the league the decisions of Mr. Wilson and his associates in 1919. It is a throwback to the old discredited alliances of the past. It speaks a language of power and not the spirit of progress. It is an attempt to do what the Holy Alliance sought 100 years ago (with just as noble expressions of purpose)—to impose by force the judgment of the rulers of the present generation upon all future generations."

Election of Harding Assures Peace

Mr. Root declared "we shall promote the peace of the world" by electing Senator Harding, whose stand on the league, he said, was unchanged from the time he voted for ratification of the peace treaty with the senate reservations. The election of Governor Cox, he said, meant the effort to have the United States join the league without change.

Mr. Root declared that it was well understood in 1919 and "is well understood now that the other parties to the treaty would have been content to accept" the senate reservations, adding:

"Several European nations already have given notice of half a dozen changes in the covenant which they propose to urge. The only reason why the changes necessary to meet the American objections have not been considered is that Mr. Wilson simply would not negotiate for them."

"I think a large majority of the American people," he declared, "earnestly wish for an organization among civilized nations through which the nations shall cooperate to prevent future wars. I certainly desire this strongly."

The plan of the league relied upon the effect of four things taken together to prevent war he asserted.

"Upon delay to afford time for investigation and for passions to cool and sober judgment to prevail."

"Upon having the facts ascertained and determined and made public so that misunderstandings and deceptions may be obviated."

"Upon having a fairly representative body not a party to the dispute publicly a responsible and matured opinion as to how the controversy ought to be settled and thus bring to bear upon the action of the parties the well informed opinion of the civilized world."

"If any party to the agreement were to violate it by making war without the stipulated delays or efforts to make war in violation of the unanimous opinion of the other nations, then upon the practical outlawry of that party from the advantages of trade, commerce and customary intercourse with the members of the society of nations, with all the consequences following from such an outlawry."

Object of League

"Principal objections to the league," Mr. Root said, "may be roughly classified as follows:

"Objections to the general defensive alliance established by Article X."

"Objections to submitting to the council of the league questions of immigration, upon which the European countries would almost necessarily differ from the American policy."

"That the scheme practically thrust aside the whole system of development of international law and of arbitral decision which had been the settled policy of the United States for many generations and depended for the treatment of questions of right as well as questions of policy upon the council which would be composed of diplomatic representatives."

"That the scheme created a superior government which would destroy the independence of the United States."

"That the working of the plan under the covenant was not so arranged as to articulate with the constitutional government of the United States; that under the president alone could practically carry on the entire foreign affairs of the United States by agents of his own selection."

Mr. Wilson "in being unwilling to accept reservations," he said, "practically where we stand today," Mr. Root said.

Cox stands for Wilson Treaty.

"Mr. Cox declares," he continued, "that he will insist upon the treaty just as Mr. Wilson negotiated it, and upon that understanding Mr. Wilson is supporting Mr. Cox. The Democratic platform says substantially the same thing."

"On the other hand, Mr. Harding, who voted for the ratification of the treaty with the senate reservations, declares that he would do it again under the same circumstances."

Mr. Root said it is plain that the issue is not between a league and no league. The question is whether the agreement creating the league shall be accepted unchanged, or shall be modified to meet the American objections.

"I would be glad to have the provisions of the agreement changed to obviate these objections. Then would follow an ordinary common sense negotiation as to the best way to obviate the objections. Regarding this process I have to say:

"I think the American objections can be met and obviated without interfering with the scheme of the league or impairing its usefulness."

"Without pretending to any special knowledge, I think there are clear indications that the other nations concerned are willing to make such changes as are necessary to meet the American objections."

"I think the objections ought to be met and obviated. The covenant contains some provisions which are unnecessary, unwise and injurious and they ought to be changed."

"There is nothing unusual or distressing about negotiating the necessary changes. If the other parties are willing—as they seem to be—it will be a simple matter."

BANKERS DISCUSS FINANCIAL RELIEF TO AGRICULTURISTS

Sec. Meredith Pleads For a Square Deal

DISCUSS CHANGES IN TAX LAWS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Discussion of federal taxation, revision and financial relief for agricultural interests was the topic today in the convention of the American Bankers' Association. Suggested changes in tax laws, however, were indefinite.

Secretary Meredith's speech pleading for a square deal for farmers by banking interests opened the way for informal meetings by rural bankers. While none crystallized into a settled plan, representatives of bankers in the cotton states decided on a mass meeting for tomorrow night.

The tax question came up in the sectional meeting of the trust company bankers where L. V. Dinkins, New Orleans said he believed present tax laws placed a handicap on commercial pioneering and acted as a brake on business.

Tax Discourages Investments.

"In the judgment of the most able men, the method in use discourages investment in new enterprises. It discourages the efforts of adventurous men who would otherwise be inclined to undertake engagements which would result in an increase in the country's wealth."

Mr. Dinkins said he believed there was a wide spread disposition among both bankers and merchants to cooperate in an orderly liquidation of outstanding credits. He believed that the bankers should not hesitate to increase their credit extension to solvent customers when that method would aid in reducing ultimately the amount of funds tied up by completion of manufacturing programs. If the recent drop in prices was accepted as a forecast of what is in store for the future he said, "the question of deflation will be settled."

DEVELOPMENT OF FOREIGN TRADE TO PROMOTE PEACE

Advocated by Admiral Benson and E. N. Hurley

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Pleas for the development of foreign trade through the American merchant marine as a means of securing world peace and returning this country to a stabilized condition were made at the National Maritime Exposition tonight by Admiral W. S. Benson, chairman of the shipping board and Edward N. Hurley, chairman during the war. Both characterized the merchant marine as a promoter of peace but each took up the subject from a different angle.

Mr. Hurley advocated an international credit plan patterned after cooperative marketing associations with the American merchant marine as the nucleus and an international bond issue of from $100,000,000 to $150,000,000 to finance it.

Admiral Benson saw in the merchant marine a means of uniting the nations and bringing them into closer contact thus stimulating better relations and promoting peace.

"If the social and economic conditions of the world are to become more stabilized, it will be possible only when the nations of Europe have worked out their economic and financial problems," said Mr. Hurley.

P. H. W. Ross, president of the National Maritime League, urged development of inland waterways, calling attention to "America's great ocean frontage which should be placed in contact with interior points through opening up of inland waterways."

WALKER ATTACKS COAL OPERATORS

GALESBURG, Ill., Oct. 19.—Charging that coal operators of Illinois are withholding shipments while cars stand idle, President John Walker of the Illinois State Federation of Labor in an address before the state labor convention today said miners had no part in boosting coal prices. James Mooney, brother of Ted Mooney, appealed for financial assistance in obtaining a new trial for he imprisoned labor leader and was given permission to sell a periodical dealing with Mooney's life.

Vera L. Rodriguez, of Chicago, spoke in behalf of Eugene Debs, Socialist candidate for president, who is in prison. She urged Debs a martyr in the cause of labor and President Walker in introducing her said he imprisoned Debs was "the crime of the century."

MINISTERIAL PENSION WAS CHIEF SUBJECT

Kewanee, Ill., Oct. 19.—Ministerial pensions was the chief subject discussed at today's meeting of the Illinois Baptists Association. A resolution asking churches to help pay dues to the pension fund was presented.

Speakers emphasized the necessity of what they termed a great onward movement in religious education. The convention went on record in favor of Alexander, who was elected president and W. F. Wagner, of Arthur, Illinois was elected secretary.

DROGHEDA, Ireland, Oct. 19.—During repeated volleys fired early today from rifles by "black and tans" who arrived in military motors, one civilian was wounded. Several raids were made and eight men were arrested.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 19.—Governor Bekman today declined to proclaim Sunday as league day for the study of the league of nations as requested by the league of nations day committee. In his opinion, he said the matter did not deserve consideration at this time.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—At least thirty states will be carried by Harding and Coolidge, Scott Boone, director of publicity of the Republican national committee predicted today.

PARLIAMENTARY DEBATE ON COAL QUESTION BEGUN

Premier's Speech Indicates an Early Settlement

KING GEORGE SETS GOOD EXAMPLE

LONDON, Oct. 19.—(By The Associated Press.)—Parliamentary debate on the coal strike, also the judgment of the most able men, the method in use discourages investment in new enterprises. It discourages the efforts of adventurous men who would otherwise be inclined to undertake engagements which would result in an increase in the country's wealth."

Mr. Dinkins said he believed there was a wide spread disposition among both bankers and merchants to cooperate in an orderly liquidation of outstanding credits. He believed that the bankers should not hesitate to increase their credit extension to solvent customers when that method would aid in reducing ultimately the amount of funds tied up by completion of manufacturing programs. If the recent drop in prices was accepted as a forecast of what is in store for the future he said, "the question of deflation will be settled."

QUESTION RELATIVES OF CARL WANDERER

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—The defense in the trial of Carl Wanderer opened its case today by questioning the defendant's relatives concerning his sanity.

Bernhardt Both, Wanderer's brother-in-law and his two sisters, Mrs. Roth and Laura Wanderer, testified that he always "had been queer," and they said he was quick tempered, subject to spells of melancholia and several times left home without saying where he was going, staying away for days at a time.

Wanderer's father said he had never thought his son insane, but that he did many queer things.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS LODGE NO. 152 MEETS

MRS. FELL LEAVES OLD PEOPLE'S HOME

Mrs. W. J. Fell, who for 27 months has very capably and acceptably filled the office of matron of the Old People's Home of this city, has resigned, greatly to the regret of the management.

The lady has won the esteem and respect of all with whom she has come in contact and she will ever be remembered with pleasure and gratitude by many. She will probably spend some time with her sons and daughters who are scattered in various parts of the country and all doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brown of Indiana have been employed, the gentleman as superintendent and the lady as matron. They come highly recommended and the trustees are confident the high state of efficiency which has prevailed in the home in the past will be fully maintained by the new officials.

ALEXANDER MAN INJURED BY FALL

J. M. Thompson of Alexander precinct is a patient at Passavant hospital as the result of an accident which occurred late Monday afternoon. Mr. Thompson was filling a tank of water for a threshing outfit at his home two and a half miles from Alexander, when the team he was driving became frightened and ran against a gate post and Mr. Thompson was thrown violently to the ground. The full force of the fall was upon his neck and shoulders and it was necessary to at once remove him to the hospital for care. It is hoped there will be no serious results from the accident.

REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE OPENS HEADQUARTERS

Reeve, who is vice chairman of the committee, said last night that the headquarters will be open new each day until the close of the campaign. Various meetings and conferences will be held in the headquarters and it will be an active place for the coming two weeks.

RETIREMENT MINISTERS WILL RECEIVE FULL PENSION IN FUTURE

Have Heretofore Received Sixty Per Cent of Money

TUSCOLA MINISTER PRESIDENT OF BOARD

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 19.—Retired Methodist preachers of the Illinois conference will hereafter receive their full pensions, in four quarterly payments each year, according to plans made here today at the annual meeting of the board of conference claimants. Heretofore they have received only sixty per cent of their pension money.

This action, styled by the board as opening a new "epoch" in Illinois Methodism, will be made possible, it was announced, by requiring each Methodist congregation to raise a sum each year equal to ten per cent of their preacher's salary. This per cent will go entirely toward meeting pension claims.

In Illinois conference there are ninety retired preachers, thirty preachers' widows and a number of dependent children, who will be benefited. More than $30,000 will be paid them.

Fix Settlement Day.

"Settlement Days," when the churches will be required to pay their ten per cent will be December 10, March 10, June 10 and September 1.

Officers of the board were elected. Rev. B. F. Shipp of Tuscola, was re-elected president; Rev. T. N. Ewing, Decatur, was named secretary; B. F. Bagby, Tuscola, vice president; L. W. Snerly, Decatur, treasurer, and Rev. H. C. Gibbs, Decatur, vice president, was re-named field secretary.

The board of domestic missions, and the conference board of home missions also held their annual sessions. Five thousand dollars was appropriated for domestic missions and a report made of the expenditure of $50,000 for home missions.

WELCOME TO ANY EVIDENCE IN THE FILES OF LEAGUE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The senate committee investigating campaign funds is "welcome to any incriminating evidence they can find of negotiations with foreign governments," in the files of the League to Enforce Peace, H. S. Houston, treasurer, declared tonight in a statement prompted by publication of the report of an investigator for the committee.

Records had been thrown open to the committee's investigators, he said, to show the sources of funds raised by the league during the campaign for the league of nations covenant before the senate. The committee, it appears, has insisted on going thru our confidential letter files, Mr. Houston continued.

I do not hesitate to say such tactics are of a kind with the whole opposition to the league covenant from beginning to end. Mr. Taft was right when he said the senate foreign relations committee was packed to beat the treaty. This investigation of the league to enforce peace at least insofar as it is engineered by that arch bitterender Senator Reed seems to be part of the same campaign.

Their highly imaginative attorney had me in conference with the German chancellor and the British prime minister. I never saw nor communicated with either. I did have informal interviews in Paris with Leon Bourgeois, chairman of the league of nations council and it seems to me looked on as important by the committee's attorney."

ASKS FOR SENTENCE; GETS NINETY DAYS

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 19.—With fruit-trees and flowers that usually are bare at this time of year, in bloom, the first real sign of winter appeared today when Charles Williams appeared before Municipal Judge Page and asked for a sentence of 90 days in jail. No charges had been placed against him.

"But this is good weather Charles," the court demurred. "It's too early to go into winter quarters."

"I know your honor, but I've got a game leg and it needs attention."

Williams was accommodated with a sentence of 90 days for vagrancy.

MARTINO COMPANY APPEARED AS FIRST OF SERIES OF ENTERTAINMENTS

The first of a series of entertainments under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus was given Tuesday night at K. C. hall on East State street. The Martino Musical Co. presented the program. Miss Josephine Martino is a vocalist of wide renown and Vitali Podolsky a distinguished violinist. The whole program was of a kind to well display the unusual capability of these two thoro musicians.

Miss Martino's voice is a soprano of remarkable range and quality. She came to Jacksonville heralded as a vocalist of great ability and the program here last night fully justified the advance press notices.

Mr. Podolsky is a Russian who came to the U. S. about six years ago after a thoro and extended course of study in the conservatory of music at Petrograd. While much can be accomplished by study and training, a great violinist must have natural talent. Certainly Mr. Podolsky is in this class and by his various numbers last night thoroughly convinced the audience of both his wonderful native talent and his years of study with great masters.

Miss Josephine Brougher was the accompanist and met the difficulties of that position with fine ability.

The next number of the course will be given Nov. 6, when Miss Margaret Stahl, reader, will present a program.

COX SETS TRAP FOR SENATOR HARDING, FALLS IN HIMSELF

Statement Issued by J. C. Welliver, Director of Publicity at Republican Headquarters Says Harding Never Saw de Kobra—Latter Attempted to Interview Candidate

MARION, O., Oct. 19.—An unsuccessful attempt by Governor Cox to trap Senator Harding, was charged in a statement issued from Harding headquarters tonight in response to suggestions by the Democratic nominee that Mr. Harding had conferred with Maurice de Kobra, a French journalist, regarding the French attitude toward the league of nations.

The statement issued over the signature of Judson C. Welliver, headquarters director of publicity, said Senator Harding had never heard of de Kobra until today, tho the latter had made an unsuccessful effort to see him in Indianapolis last Friday. It was asserted that de Kobra who said he had been traveling with the Cox party "was evidently expected by Governor Cox to secure an interview with Senator Harding and to say certain things to him."

"Therefore," continued the statement, "when Senator Harding at Greencastle, Ind., made his usual observation about France having sent a spokesman to him in formally, Gov. Cox assumed that the de Kobra mission had been successful and that Senator Harding had taken the bait."

Senator Harding declined to discuss the governor's reference to de Kobra or to say anything further in regard to his utterance at Greencastle. He indicated that with his reply to President Wilson's letter last night he was inclined to regard the incident closed, and that he did not intend to reveal the identity of his informant or of any other details of his "informal" advice.

Senator Harding will leave tomorrow on his last speaking trip outside his own state. Traveling in special train he will reach Jackson, Ohio, in time to make an afternoon speech and on Thursday will speak at Rochester and Buffalo, N. Y.

Cox Falls Into Trap.

Mr. Welliver's statement said that Governor Cox had fallen into a neat little trap that had been set for Senator Harding. Senator Harding never saw M. de Kobra and never heard of him until today.

The facts about this pleasant trap that had been set for Senator Harding. Senator Harding never saw M. de Kobra and never heard of him until today. The facts about this pleasant little conspiracy are these:

"Friday evening, a few minutes after Senator Harding's train had arrived at Indianapolis, M. de Kobra came to me, introducing himself as the correspondent of La Liberté of Paris and asked that audience with Senator Harding be arranged. I declined, and Monsieur de Kobra became insistent. He said he had been in contact with Governor Cox's party and having secured the Cox viewpoint on international matters, was now desirous of an interview with Senator Harding in order that he might present the Republican side. I finally told him it was impossible."

DEEP WATERWAY THRU ST. LAWRENCE IS IMPRACTICABLE

Is So Termed at Hearing Held in New York

New York, Oct. 19.—Criticism of the proposed deep waterway from the great lakes through the St. Lawrence river as impracticable, unsound and injurious to the barre canal of New York State was massed by its opponents at a hearing today before the international joint commission. Fleeced along the arguments were several references to the expenditure of great sums by the United States to improve waterways in another country and opponents pictured the plight of the investment in case of war between Great Britain and America. One speaker declared he could not see why the United States should start another Panama canal in a foreign country.

The American chairman of the international commission, former Senator Gardner of Maine, in reply said:

Inferences Are Erroneous.

"I have noted inferences, some deliberately erroneous, that this project is an attempt upon the part of Canada to inveigle the United States to build a waterway for Canada. This project originated in the house of representatives of the United States."

Public service commissioner Lewis Nixon asserted "it would seem the benefits of this project are entirely assumed."

Taking cognizance of the strong support it has in fifteen western states, he thought, many cities are dreaming of being ocean ports. He predicted at least twenty locks have to be built on the lakes and pointed out the slow time that the boats would make compared to a trip to an Atlantic port.

New York commercial and steamship organizations are against the project not because they are "selfish," but because they do not desire western states to saddle upon the people of New York state, twenty per cent of the cost of the proposition, several speakers said."

WORK PROGRESSES ON EAST STATE PAVEMENT

Contractor Williams yesterday began putting in the concrete curb and gutter for the East State street pavement. George Wiseman, who is inspector on the job, said yesterday that Mr. Williams shipped a small concrete mixer three weeks ago but it has not yet reached the city. Consequently he is using a large mixer that arrived with other equipment. It is not as convenient to do the work with the large mixer and the contractor is hoping that the remainder of the equipment will arrive in a short time. Various delays are being experienced in the receipt of materials, the gravel and sand ordered weeks ago having just been delivered.

WILL INVESTIGATE PRICES FOR FOOD

Boston, Oct. 19.—The federal grand jury was ordered in special session on October 27 today to decide whether the present high prices for food at hotels and restaurants involve criminal profiteering. As an exhibit for its consideration it was indicated the grand jury would be shown a ham and which costs six cents to make and was sold for thirty cents.

The announcement followed a conference with hotel proprietors who, like restaurant keepers said there was no way in which they could cut prices and make their dining rooms pay.

The English miners have attempted an impossible thing. They are demanding higher wages for themselves and lower prices for the public. These two things are incompatible and show that the miners do not take economic facts into account.

That Italian wife beater in Chicago who strenuously objected to having a jury of women try his case, certainly displayed good judgment. It wouldn't have taken those twelve women long to make up their verdict nor to fix the penalty.

Mr. Small didn't have the opportunity to make a lengthy address in Jacksonville yesterday, but in the few minutes allotted to him made a clear statement of definite issues. Mr. Small makes no claim to oratory. However, the people of this state will very much prefer to have a successful business man at the head of the state government rather than a theorist who lays some claim to oratorical ability.

Various plans are being advocated for honoring Gen. Pershing. Certain it is that the modesty of the great American general has its appeal. Since the war days he has made no effort to keep himself in the limelight. In fact, he has given evidence of his desire to withdraw as much as possible into private life. His course is adding to his good name instead of detracting from it.

ROOSEVELT'S CHOICE

Thomas D. Knight, prominent Chicagoan and former leader of the Roosevelt forces in Illinois, is out in a strong message to all former progressives to vote for Harding and Coolidge. In a statement Mr. Knight declares that he would be actively supporting the Republican platform and the Harding and Coolidge ticket. Mr. Knight declares that the fact that Col. Roosevelt's own flesh and blood, his widow, children and sister, Mrs. Douglas Robinson, are working hard for the success of the Republican ticket is sufficient evidence of their devotion to the cause.

If you will give the subject real thought you will find that there is no good reason for scratching your ballot in the coming election. A scratched ballot will not give assurance of any better public service than will be given by the Republican candidates. A ballot with a cross in the circle at the head of a party ticket is sure to be counted as there can be no error in the marking.

THE SILENT BRYAN

William Jennings Bryan darts in and out of Washington every now and then and apparently doesn't know that a presidential campaign is raging in this country. It is the first presidential campaign in 36 years that has found Mr. Bryan's silver tongue tied. He seems to be wholly disinterested in the events of the hour.

With election day only three weeks off it is evident that this former Democratic leader is not going to be able to disinter his heart from the grave where it was buried so deep at San Francisco.

This is one of the unique features of the 1920 campaign—a political battle on and Bryan as silent as the sphinx. Something wrong somewhere.

FREE TRADE TURNING THE SCALE.

The fact that our imports increased by $1,700,000,000 while our trade balance fell off over $1,500,000,000 during the eight months of the current year, compared with the first eight months of 1919, will give some of the doubting tariff Thomases something to think about between now and November 2nd, when the nation will decide whether we are to have a continuance of internationalism and free trade or a return of constitutionalism and protection.

Our imports for the first eight months of this year totaled nearly $4,000,000,000 in value, compared with $2,263,000,000 in 1919; exports for the 1920 period totaled $5,478,000,000, compared with $5,272,000,000 for the 1919 period. During the past three months we have been importing goods at the astonishing rate of $6,400,000,000 annually, while since March our exports have been falling off at an alarming rate. They totaled $820,000,000 in March, and $579,000,000 in August, a decrease of about 30 per cent within five months.

A study of our foreign trade from the standpoint of Grand Divisions, comparing the 1919 with the 1920 period, shows that imports from Europe increased from $363,000,000 to $899,000,000 while exports to Europe decreased from $3,496,000,000 to $2,985,000,000. This points irresistibly to the fact that Europe has largely replenished her stocks or raw products, mill machinery, and building materials which ran low in the course of the war, and is putting into operation her plan to pay her indebtedness to this country in goods instead of gold as rapidly as the Democratic free trade law will permit.

Rippling Rhymes By Walt Mason

POTS AND KETTLES. There is no chance on earth, alack! Old customs with us linger; the pot still calls the kettle black, and points a scornful finger. This metaphor of course is wrong, for pots can do no pointing, but let the purists come along, availing and aroaming. But men can point, and point they do, with righteous indignation, at all the profiteering crew, of high or humble station. The grocer buys a Sunday suit, and when he's made the payment, he says the government should shoot the maker of that raiment. The tailor to the grocer wends, to buy a few molasses, and then his treasured beard he rends: "The price all reason passes!" The butcher stands beside his block, and butches with a cleaver; he bought some capsules from the doc, to cure his chills and fever. And now he says, "It was a shame, the way that sawbones taxed me; he played a low down, sinful game," he sneaked me and he waxed me." The doctor to the butcher goes, to buy a pound of mutton; and says, on leaving, "Heaven knows this meat man is a glutton! My father used to buy a sheep for what this fragment cost me; this butcher's charges, fierce and steep, confound me and exhaust me!" The pots about the kettles wail; the kettles get excited, and say the pots would be in jail if public wrongs were righted.

Deceased was born near old Jordanville, 6 miles north of Sinclair March 17, 1842, and spent practically his entire life in the township in which he was born. He is survived by his wife, three sons and two daughters, one son and one daughter preceding him in death.

VISITOR FROM LOUISIANA

John Ramsey of Lafayette, Louisiana, is visiting his sister, Mrs. J. W. Bowen on Edge Hill road, and his old time friends, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Cowdin of Joy Prairie. Mr. Ramsey has been away from Jacksonville a long time but many will remember him as a dealer in fine horses. The writer well remembers a sale Mr. Ramsey conducted at the livery stable where is now Cherry's garage. As the writer remembers W. S. Phillips was interested for a while with Mr. Ramsey in the handling of fine stock. There was one fine Percheron, "Sweet Brier," which was a blue ribbon animal.

PASS CORRUPT

Simla.—(By A. P.)—The Imperial Legislative Council has passed a bill, put forward by the government, which penalizes corrupt practices in elections.

Farm Bureau Notes

District Conference of Farm Advisers—The Farm Advisers in the territory adjacent to Springfield, will meet at the St. Nichols Hotel, on Monday and Tuesday to discuss two big topics of general interest. The first of these will be Handling Commercial Activities. The second: How Can We Best Serve a Large Membership. Representatives of the various executive committees are invited to this conference and we are hoping that Morgan County may be well represented.

Visit With Dr. Coffey—Dr. George N. Coffey, State Leader of Farm Advisers, was a caller at the farm bureau office, Friday night. Dr. Coffey believes that we are in a new period of farm bureau work and thinks we ought to change our organization so that we can interest as many of our members as possible. He believes in a very definite program of work for a county, and thinks that this program of work should be developed in meetings thru conferences with farm bureau members.

Advantages of a Combination Sale—A small breeder cannot hope to make much profit out of his offering in a combination sale. His compensation must come in great part from seeing how his animals compare with those of other breeders and in the subsequent sales that will result because of his being placed on the map as a breeder at the combination sale. Our Duroc breeders sold a number of animals at a very low figure on the 12th, but they are coming back with another sale.

Soil Maps Helpful—The maps made as a result from the soil survey in Morgan County, are proving very helpful when the county agent is asked to visit farms and test soil. Recently on these trips he has taken along a farm book of the county, and the soil survey map. After locating the farm in the plat book, the types of soil found in that section are shown on the survey maps and then the soil is tested. The soil survey was very well done in this county.

More Poultry Culling—The county agent got his wires crossed and scheduled a poultry culling demonstration, southwest of Waverly for the same afternoon he was scheduled to judge some of the farm products at the Farmers' Institute at Franklin. The services of D. T. Heimlich were enlisted to conduct the poultry culling demonstration and both dates kept.

We have several requests for additional demonstration meetings and will quite likely schedule them for the last part of next week.

Conference of Pig Club Members—The pig club members met in the Farm Bureau office at two p. m., Saturday and received final instructions for fitting the pig for the show and sale on October 30th. There will be 31 pigs representing the Duroc, Poland-China and Berkshire breeds. About two thirds of the membership would like to keep their pigs for breeding purposes.

FAMOUS SWORD

COMES TO AMERICA WASHINGTON.—(By Associated Press.)—The sword of "Bonnie Prince Charlie," worn by him at court, and one of the romantic blades of Scottish history, has come to the United States. It is the gift of Lord Garioch, only son of the Earl of Mar of Scotland to Mrs. Clarence Crittenden Calhoun, of Washington, one of the descendants of the House of Mar on her mother's side. The historic sword was delivered thru the British Embassy where it came in care of the Ambassador, Sir Auckland Geddes.

The words of presentation which accompanied the claymore declare it was sent "in view of the fact that it was for their adherence and loyalty to the cause of the Stewarts that the Earls of Mar suffered so greatly in their estates and fortunes that some of the family in exile sought refuge in America."

RHEUMATISM

A Remarkable Home Treatment

Given by One Who Had It

In the spring of 1893 I was attacked by Muscular and Sub-acute Rheumatism. I suffered as only those who have had it know, for over three years. I tried remedy after remedy, and doctor after doctor, but such relief as I received was only temporary. Finally I found a treatment that cured me completely, and it has never returned. I have given it to a number who were terribly afflicted and even bed ridden, some of them 70 to 80 years old, and the results were the same as in my own case.

I want every sufferer from such forms of rheumatic trouble to try this marvelous healing power.

Don't send a cent; simply mail your name and address, and I will send it free to try. After you have used it and it has proven itself to be that long-looked-for means of getting rid of your rheumatism, you may send the price of it, one dollar, but understand, I do not want your money unless you are perfectly satisfied to send it. Isn't that fair? Why suffer any longer when relief is thus offered you free? Don't delay. Write today.

JACKSONVILLE TO HAVE REAL CIRCUS

The Jacksonville Firemen's Benefit Circus to be held under canvas three days and Saturday matinee, commencing Thursday, October 28th, will comprise many of the headline feature attractions of the Ringling Bros., Barnum and Bailey and Sells Photo Circuses. Everything from elephants to peanuts, the funny laugh provoking clowns, the awe inspiring aerialists, the beautiful horses with their lady riders, the unriddable mules, Japanese Wire Walkers and equilibrists, dog and pony acts, slide for life, flyers and leapers, in fact, one grand, dashing mirth provoking show, clean and refined and yet full of pep, ginger and go.

It should be understood that this is a real circus, given under tent, exactly as advertised and not, as some think, a home talent affair.

BIG CROWD GREET

G. O. P. CANDIDATES

LEN SMALL AND ASSOCIATES GIVEN ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION.

Candidate for Governor Talked Frankly on Important Issues—Assailed Record of His Opponent—Congressman McKinley and Mason Heard in Brief Statement.

The Republican candidates for state and district came to Jacksonville yesterday on their special train and were given an enthusiastic reception by the people of Jacksonville and vicinity. The special arrived over the Burlington about 2:25 and left over the Chicago & Alton for the south half an hour later. A great crowd of men and women thronged about the station.

Frank L. Smith, chairman of the state Republican committee, introduced the various candidates to the assembled company and remarks were made by Len Small, candidate for governor; W. B. McKinley, candidate for U. S. senate; William E. Mason, candidate for congressman at large, and Guy L. Shaw, candidate for congress from this district.

The candidates who when introduced merely bowed their acknowledgments were L. L. Emerson, secretary of state; Andrew Russell, state auditor; Fred Sterling, lieutenant governor; Charles Vail, clerk supreme court; Richard Yates, congressman at large; Earl B. Searcy, candidate for member of the legislature; Mrs. Laura Evans and Mrs. Helen Grigsby, candidates for members board of trustees University of Illinois.

Mr. Middlecoff was present as a representative of Attorney General E. J. Brundage, who is ill.

Mr. Shaw said that he is an active candidate for congress and will spend a number of days in Morgan county before the election. He said that he favored a bonus for ex-soldiers and whatever changes in the tariff regulations are necessary for bringing corn back to the higher level where it belongs.

Mr. Small Outlined Platform.

Mr. Small was allotted more time, than the others for his remarks and said:

Ladies and Gentlemen, Fellow Republicans:

I am certainly pleased to come to you as the Republican candidate for governor of Illinois. I shall always feel grateful to the Republicans of Illinois for the splendid vote of confidence which they gave me on Sept. 15; and it will be my ambition to conduct the affairs of that office and of this state in such a way as to merit that confidence.

If I am elected governor of Illinois, I will give the people an honest, economical, efficient and humane administration. I will try to secure for the state a dollar in value for every dollar spent. I will serve all the people to the very best of my ability and keep every pledge I made before the primary.

And right here it might be proper for me to say that every pledge I have made has been made publicly. I have made no secret promises or agreements with any man or combination of men.

The more I travel over this great state of ours the more I realize how much it would mean to all of us if the hard roads about which we have been talking for so many years were built; now only for passengers but for the purpose of hauling freight and express and possibly mail.

I am strongly in favor of building the roads and will push to a rapid completion the building of the hard road system which has been so enthusiastically approved by the people. The people want the roads and they want them now, and I am in favor of building them now and extending them to every section of Illinois fairly and without favoritism.

I believe that Illinois, one of the richest and grandest states in this Union, should have a hard road system second to no state in the nation.

I am in favor of a more liberal policy to the schools and school teachers. And I stand for humane care and treatment of our unfortunate who are confined in the public institutions of this state.

I will do everything within my power to stop criminal profiteering in Illinois. I am in favor of co-operative buying which will save to the consumer the extortionate profits of the criminal profiteers, and co-operative selling which will insure to the producer, the farmer and the manufacturer a fair price for his labor.

An Answer to Lewis.

I understand that my Democratic opponent, ex-Senator J. H. Han Lewis is traveling over the state making speeches in which he advocates the election of himself independent of national and political issues. I submit to you if the great office of governor is not of enough importance to be bound by the principles of the Republican party then what office is?

I do not blame ex-Senator Lewis for wanting his public record as a United States Senator forgotten during this campaign. As whip of the Democratic senate it was his duty, and he performed that duty well from a Democratic standpoint, to line up the Democrats for every measure and everything that Wilson wanted.

No other member of the senate was more responsible than Lewis for the passage of the enormous appropriation bills which were passed and squandered millions and hundreds of millions, yes, even billions of dollars of our money.

Ex-Senator Lewis held up his right hand and took the oath of office of United States senator to support the constitution of the States. But later, in a speech on the floor of the senate, he said he "would not be bound by the obsolete provisions of a paper constitution."

This same man, three years ago, in a public speech said that Woodrow Wilson, when he made his campaign for re-election and said to the people of this country "I kept you out of war; elect me and I will keep you out of war" knew and had known for many months that this country was sure to be drawn into the war no matter who was elected president; and Lewis also said that Wilson was justified in telling that lie to the people to fool them in order to get their votes.

A Question of Promises

This same Lewis is now making promises to the people of this state. I ask you if a man publicly says that it is right to lie to the people to get their votes and who, after he has taken the oath of office for United States senator to support the constitution, says it is merely an obsolete scrap of paper, are that man's promises good?

I am a Republican, I have been a Republican all of my life. I believe in Republican principles. Never before in the history of our government has it meant so much to our country to elect a Republican administration.

I believe that every person who has the interest of the country at heart should put a cross in the Republican circle and vote for every man on the ticket and I predict that Senator Harding and the whole ticket will be elected on the second day of November by an overwhelming majority.

McKinley Talked About Taxes.

W. B. McKinley called attention to the fact that federal taxes paid in Illinois are of a volume equal to that paid by 12 southern states. He said further that for every dollar that the government spends in this state, the people of Illinois pay $3 in taxes. The speaker said he was a firm believer in educational work and that money from the federal government should supplement the work that the state does.

He said that at the time the selective draft law became effective it was shown that one-fourth of the men called could not read or write affords proof of the need of educational work. Development of public health work is also favored by Mr. McKinley and he sees great benefit for the people in the further support of the farm bureau movement. He quotes figures to show that a few years ago there were 7,000,000 more people living in the country districts than in the towns while at the time of the last census there were 4,000,000 more people in the towns than in the country.

Congressman Mason, who is always well received by a campaign audience, had just made a start on the discussion on the League of Nations when the train started on its trip to the south.

The Big Question.

Mr. Mason said that in campaigns before during his visits to Morgan county, that he had talked about the tariff and sound money and some other issues, and he did not count any of them as important as the League of Nations which is before the people now.

The speaker declared that President Wilson is the best president the British empire ever had serving in the U. S. He declared any plan which would make it possible for European nations to tell us just what we must do with reference to international and national affairs. Eight thousand American soldiers are in Russia now and 500 of them sleep in graves there, according to the congressman and he said with the League there would be thousands more called upon for service overseas in settling the troubles of European countries.

A short time since as a young man was driving his car from Merritt to Riggston at a late hour suddenly two men jumped on the running board in a lonely place and placing a revolver at the young man's head bade him go where they dictated. Naturally he obeyed and the men finally landed or guided him into a deep wood and giving him two dollars bade him get back home double quick which he proceeded to do. He has no idea who the men were but doesn't care to earn two dollars that way again.

DIES AT HOME IN CASS COUNTY

Word has been received in this city by friends of the death of John Hegener, a former Morgan county man and a prominent resident of Cass county at Bluffs Springs. Mr. Hegener was nearly 70 years old. A number of years of his life he devoted to teaching school. At one time he taught at Arcadia, but for a number of years he had lived in Bluffs Springs.

Funeral services were conducted at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Bluffs Springs Methodist church. Rev. P. P. Carson of Charleston, Ill., officiating. The remains were taken to Boardtown for interment.

About Prices

Yes, it seems as tho prices have finally started down the hill, but we are sorry to say that as yet, we have felt no drop in anything we stock, with the exception of a few drugs that went soaring during the war. As it is now, nearly 10% of everything we get is, is advanced in price. We assure you it is most displeasing to say the least to have this state of affairs in existence just when you all are expecting thing sto be going down.

However, we have been anticipating a reduction of our prices and therefore we have not stocked up, as it were. This is of two-fold advantage to you. 1st—Tho you pay the latest price on the article you get here, you can be absolutely sure it is fresh stock. 2nd—When the drop in price does reach our stock, we will be the first to have the low price for you.

So you see it always pays to trade here, where FRESH goods and PROPER prices prevail.

Carrying On

THE refining of petroleum has been revolutionized during the past ten years. Otherwise the present use of automotive machinery would be impossible.

In 1910 the average yield of gasoline from crude was 11 percent, while in 1919 this average had risen to about 26 percent, without in any way, impairing the quality of the product.

This tremendous advance was the direct result of applying the findings of scientific workers to the problems of industry, and in this work the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has taken a leading part.

The chemists and technical experts who have charge of the manufacturing activities of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) have been pioneers in the scientific refining of crude oil.

Their success is attested by the fact that the Company has been able to produce an ever-increasing volume of gasoline from the petroleum available.

The gasoline problem is important, but it can and will be solved by individual initiative, stimulated by fair and reasonable competition.

In the solving of this problem, the interests of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), the manufacturer of automotive machinery, and the public are one—greatly increased production is essential.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is straining every fibre of its highly specialized organization to increase the quantity of gasoline which may be taken from the crude—to maintain the high standard of quality it has always insisted on, and to do this without disturbing the output of other useful and necessary refined products of petroleum which it must supply.

GOOD ADVICE

TO A DYSPEPTIC

Give the Stomach Help to Digest Food and to Offset the Tendency to Acidity—Use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

The wholesale advice to starve your way to stomach health is mighty poor judgment. Only the mighty robust constitution can stand such a strain. If you cannot eat, if what you eat sours, if your indigestion follows certain foods that cause heartburn, sour stomach, or gasiness, try Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. And if there is anything as your stomach had turned into concrete these tablets help digest the food and thus bring relief. Many physicians write "Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets as directed on a prescription blank when patients are distressed with frequent attacks of indigestion."

They furnish the alkaline effect to offset acidity of the stomach and also pancreatin to aid intestinal digestion of starchy foods.

Get a 60 cent box at any drug store, eat what you enjoy, take a tablet or two after meals and thus avoid the distress due to indigestion or dyspepsia.—Adv.

ITERBERRY M. E. SOCIETY HAD MEETING

Mrs. Thomas Parlier is Hostess to Members of the Society at Recent Meeting.

Literberry, Oct. 19.—The Literberry M. E. society met recently with Mrs. Thomas Parlier, at her home near Grace Chapel. Mrs. Guy Dinwiddie read the 4th chapter of James for the lesson.

The program follows: Song, Trusting Jesus. Prayer by the President, Mrs. Earl Rexroat.

Roll call and minutes of September meeting.

Letters from friends read by the secretary one letter of note was a French letter from Mrs. Earnestine Thoms, Annapolis, France. In this letter Mrs. Thoms expressed her appreciation and thanks for what our society is doing for her little daughter. This was a business meeting and arrangements were made for two public luncheons to come off in the near future. The greatest attraction at this meeting was Charles Richard, the three months old baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Goodpasture. This was the first time the little one had attended an aid meeting and he was looked upon as a new member; he is a beautiful baby and very well behaved.

Twenty members were present. Refreshments were served during the afternoon and a very social time was enjoyed. After the dues were paid the closing Bible verse was repeated and the meeting closed.

The November meeting will be with Mrs. Dr. Forman, the program has been arranged by the president and will be a Thanksgiving entertainment.

CUT-PRICED TIRES

They know that if the quality of a tire was right, the demand for the tire would make it unnecessary to offer it at a cut price. You never know the real cost of a tire until it has delivered its last mile of service. I have always carried a line of cheaper tires to meet this first-cost tire business. But I am not telling you that this line is the tire for you to buy. Good reliable tire manufacturers don't have to revert to cut prices to sell their tires. Don't worry too much about a

WARNING ABOUT BURNING LEAVES

There is an ordinance prohibiting the burning of leaves and other trash inside the city limits before 9 o'clock in the morning and after 3 o'clock in the afternoon.
The practice especially in the late afternoon and evening is not only dangerous to drivers of automobiles and other vehicles but creates unhealthy conditions.
Citizens in burning leaves will govern themselves accordingly else they will be subject to arrest and fine under the ordinance.
FRANK KILORAN, Chief of Police.

Wm. Weigel of Seattle, who says he had no idea anything on earth could do for him what Tanlac has done. Declares he has gained 30 pounds and that his health has been completely restored.

"I had no idea that anything on earth could do for me what Tanlac has done, and I just feel like telling everybody I see about this wonderful medicine," said Wm. Weigel, 2602 Third Ave., Seattle, Wash., with the widely known New Washington Hotel.
"When I began taking Tanlac," continued Mr. Weigel, "my condition was so run down that I could not work. I was never hungry, and my stomach was so disordered that the little I forced myself to eat disagreed with me. My kidneys bothered me, and the pains across my back were so severe that when I tried to bend over and straighten up again it would nearly kill me. I had splitting headaches and such dizzy spells at times I would almost topple over. Then, to make matters worse, I began to suffer with rheumatism in my legs. I was nervous weak and listless, was rapidly losing weight and strength and seemed to be going down hill every day.
"I began to improve after the first few doses of Tanlac. I seemed to feel better each day as I continued the treatment. In a few weeks I was like a brand-new man. Now, I have a big appetite, eat anything I want, enjoy every mouthful and I don't suffer in the least afterwards. I sleep like a child every night and feel just fine on arising in the morning. I haven't a pain about me, my strength has been wonderfully increased and I have actually gained thirty pounds.
"If anybody doubts this statement just tell them to see me and I will give them the names of some of my friends who will verify every word of it.
Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Coover Drug Co. and J. F. Shreve drug store and by the leading drug store in every town.

PAIGE

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL CAR IN AMERICA

LUXURIOUSLY finished and equipped, our five-passenger Sedan model is everywhere acknowledged as holding a place of leadership among the finest motor carriages of this country and Europe. It is unquestionably one of the most exquisite creations in the fine car field.

A tremendous satisfaction is derived from its ownership, for it is, above all else, a car of practical utility—a car whose daily usefulness is entirely independent of both season and weather.

Built on the highly refined Six-42 chassis, this light Sedan model establishes a new standard of efficiency is the operation of enclosed cars.

Its six cylinder motor, of original Paige design and construction, has all the speed that anyone could desire—together with an abundance of power which makes possible an acceleration from five to twenty-five miles per hour in nine seconds flats.

In short, the five-passenger Sedan has all of the essentials that make for complete comfort, efficiency and utility in a thoroughly fashionable car for general family use. It is easily, we believe, the greatest dollar-for-dollar value among enclosed cars on the market today.

Daily Market Report

STOCK MARKET ON MORE STABLE BASIS

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The stock market was on a more stable basis today, although the aimless drift of prices during the early and intermediate periods continued to reflect economic readjustments at home and abroad.

Labor unsettlement in England, caused further weakness in foreign exchange, with the rate for British demand bills falling almost to $3.40 for a pound sterling.

A significant sidelight on domestic industrial conditions was seen in the sweeping wage contraction for September, payrolls in several lines of cotton and kindred manufactures showing declines of 25 to almost 40 per cent.

Oils, shippings, tractions and sugars, furnished much of the day's limited momentum. Sales 385,000 shares.

Bonds were active and irregular during the early trading, liberty issues yielding with the prominent rails and industrials but some of the lost ground was recovered in the final dealings. Total sales (par value) $13,200,000.

GAVE DINNER PARTY.
Mrs. Nancy Graham of this city has been visiting her son, R. L. Graham, and family in Deer Valley, Wash., for the past several months. Recently Mr. and Mrs. Graham gave a dinner party in honor of their mother, who was soon to leave for Los Angeles. The same linen was used at this dinner that was used by Mrs. Graham for her wedding dinner thirty-nine years before. The event was a most pleasant one.

Experienced Mothers know the wisdom of assisting nature before Baby's coming

It is natural to think of the expectant mother's influence upon the unborn babe. Her food, her habits, her hygiene, and even the condition of her mind, all have a part in determining the well-being or ill-being of her infant before birth.

No woman awaiting the joys of coming motherhood should allow the days to pass without giving nature a helping hand—because the conditions of pending motherhood, existing as they do, over a protracted period of months, create almost a new state of being for a woman.

Just as she prepares herself for it, so will most favorable conditions prevail when her child is born. MOTHER'S FRIEND is a balm for the nerves, an intensely penetrating lubricant that softens the muscles, relaxes tension of the delicate organism involved in maternity, and prepares the way for an easier, quicker and practical delivery.

Over sixty million breakfasts with Maple Karo last year

Does it interest you to know that Maple Karo outsells all different kinds of maple syrups? Delicious flavor—moderate price the reason

Two big reasons stand out for the record breaking sales of Maple Karo. First—the flavor of Maple Karo is not an "imitation." The makers are the world's largest users of the purest and best flavored maple sugar.

Over a thousand tons are brought annually from Vermont and Canada—where the finest maple trees grow.

This sugar is used to make Maple Karo and to give it its delicious flavor.

The second reason is quite as interesting as the first: Maple Karo is remarkably moderate in price—selling at a lower price than any other syrup of approaching quality and flavor.

Over five million cans were sold last year. Get a can of Maple Karo in the GREEN CAN from your grocer today. If you are not pleased with it, the grocer will gladly return your money.

SOME REMINISCENCES.

"Going down town?" asked a Journal reporter as Capt. W. Kirby was unhitching his horse in the West end of College street.

"Yes, get in," and the man of the pencil quickly accepted the kind invitation. As they rode along in the warm sunshine the captain noticed several landmarks as they passed along.

One of the early settlers and merchants of this city was the late Joseph O. King, sole father and first promoter of the city water works. Like so many others he and his good wife came from New England and brought along Mrs. King's sister, Miss Dwight. Another good old pioneer was the late Elihu Wolcott, stern and sturdy, as inflexible as adamant in the path of duty. He had an enterprising son named Eliza who wooed and won Miss Dwight and Capt. Kirby pointed the house occupied by John King on the southwest corner of West College and South Fayette streets, as the place where the wedding took place many years ago.

Reaching West street the captain pointed to the house on the southeast corner of West and West College streets as the home of the late Mrs. King, a good lady whose birthplace was in Queen

BILL FOR PARTITION.

State of Illinois ss.
County of Morgan ss.
In the Circuit Court of Morgan County, to the November Term, A. D. 1920.
Milton Elsworth Trotter, Complainant, vs. Vennetta G. Basey, Willametta Dyer, Bessie M. R. Myers, Fred C. Trotter and Thomas H. Rapp, Defendants. Bill for Partition.

Affidavit of non-residence of Vennetta G. Basey, Willametta Dyer and Bessie M. R. Myers, defendants above named, having been filed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of said county, notice is hereby given to the said Vennetta G. Basey, Willametta Dyer and Bessie M. R. Myers, that the complainant filed his bill of complaint in said court on the chancery side thereof on the 4th day of October, A. D. 1920, and that a summons issued out of said court against said defendants returnable on the second Monday of November, A. Victoria's dominions. She had a son who was a chum of the captain.

"And that's where I used to go to school," said the captain pointing to the little house on the corner of the alley immediately back of the residence on West College street.

"Yes, get in," and the man of the pencil quickly accepted the kind invitation. As they rode along in the warm sunshine the captain noticed several landmarks as they passed along. One day when the place became rather hot for some fugitives it was thought best to move them to Prof. Turner's home. As soon as they got there, when, to his dismay, he saw the slave drivers in the distance. Fortunately the latter failed to note the people coming toward him and the friend told the colored people to get into the tall weeds on the side of the road and then rustle them a little while he pretended to be driving hogs and the ruse succeeded.

One day the slave drivers were hot on the trail of a pair of house servants hidden by the late Ben Henderson. What to do they didn't know as the approach of the slave hunters was heralded in the morning and things looked fearful indeed. They didn't dare hide the poor creatures in any house in town that would receive them and the danger was imminent. Finally Mr. Henderson drove his wagon to the back door, bade the seekers for liberty to get in and lie down while he covered them with corn fodder and drove up town hitching his team while he went into a store, in fact, several stores, to transact some business. Then he leisurely came out and slowly drove outside of town and on to the next station east.

AT THE PARKS.

Altho late in the season advantage is being taken of the fine weather to do a lot of work.

Mr. Simons, an experienced landscape gardener and engineer has been employed to lay out the drive in the new park adjacent to Moultrie Lake. He is to do the preliminary work now so that the War Mothers may be able to plant their trees which they are contemplating placing along the drive and finish the detail next year, 1921, and half next year. The effort is being made to have this a very attractive piece of work.

In Nichols Park some important work is being done. By an arrangement with the golf club that organization pays $50 toward moving certain trees and also supplies several new ones in place of some to be taken away. They have also begun an important place of work on the south side of the park grading down the hill immediately east of the ditch, south of the small bridge and reclaiming quite an area of land which has heretofore been covered with water and swamp grass. The golfers will expend probably $1,000 to $1,200 or even more on this work. A number of teams and men are now at work and the grading will be pushed as rapidly as possible.

Attached to the barn Supt. Hopper has erected a commodious tool shed out of lumber taken from the old deer shed. The structure will house the mowers, plows and other implements.

Along the edge of the lake just west of the barn and east of the former location of the deer shed a lot of brush has been piled for a bird retreat. This will also be adorned with wild grapevines and other growth which will supply the birds with food. Also it is the intention to plant along the edge of the lake there some water birch trees and some mulberry trees, the latter with a view to feeding the birds.
